Power of Attorney for Health Care

Why Should I have a Power of Attorney for Health Care?

- It provides a written outline of your choices about treatments you want or don't want. It also tells your family, friends and providers what medical care decisions you want made for you.
- Provides guidance to your providers. Relieves your family and friends from guessing about what types of care you want.

Who should I talk to about a Power of Attorney?

Consulting with an attorney is always a good idea when filling out a Power of Attorney for Health Care, especially a Power of Attorney for Finances.

What is Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care?

You choose another person to make decisions about your medical care. That person will make medical decisions for you when you are not able to speak for yourself. This person is called your "agent". You may have two agents. The first person is your primary agent. The second person is able to make decisions for you only if the first person cannot be reached or does not want to make decisions for you.

Why are Power of Attorney forms Important?

Knowing about Power of Attorney for Health Care can help you. That way your family and health care providers are prepared for hard decisions about your care.

Wisconsin law does not automatically authorize family to make health care decisions.

Benefits:

- * Avoid costly court costs and Guardianship Proceedings
- * Allows others to know your wishes and guides them in difficult times
- * Saves time for family and friends
- * Allows you to decide who makes decisions when you are unable

Can Power of Attorneys from other states transfer to Wisconsin?

In some cases another states Power of Attorney may transfer to Wisconsin if the correct language is used that correlates with Wisconsin law. In Wisconsin if it does not specify that a person may be admitted to a nursing home or an assisted living facility; then the Power of Attorney may not admit the person to a nursing home or an assisted living facility 16 beds or larger.

Where can I get a Power of Attorney for Health Care?

The Wisconsin Department of Health Services has advance directive forms available online. These forms are designed to be completed without the assistance of an attorney. Given your particular circumstances or concerns, however, you may want to seek legal advice from an attorney. The forms available are:

- Declaration to Physicians (Wisconsin Living Will)
- Power of Attorney for Health Care
- Power of Attorney for Finance & Property
- Authorization for Final Disposition

Copies of the forms may be obtained either by:
